

Colter News

January 6th., 2009

► We hope you had an enjoyable time with your child/children during the holiday vacation. We certainly caught up with our lack of snow!!

► Our PTA meets again next Tuesday, January 13th., at 6:30 in the Colter cafeteria. They have been very active in planning activities, such as the upcoming Bingo Night and Art Night activities. Please come and become a part of this great organization.

► Third grade students who have paid for a winter sports activity and arranged for equipment rental will begin next Thursday, January 15th., and will continue for four more weeks. We are looking forward to providing a great opportunity for our kids to take advantage of the local sport opportunities. Even accomplished students in one area can learn another skill.

► There will be a meeting for parents of Kindergarten and First Grade parents who are interested in their children participating in the Dual Immersion Spanish and English classes next year. Feel free to attend if you have younger ones at home, or wish to learn more about the program. The meeting will be held January 21st. at 6:30 at the Middle School.

► Fourth grade students will take the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) on Monday, January 26th. This test is used to compile nationwide data and no individual results will be given to us.

► I am attaching information for parents concerning reading for you information. Thanks for your hard work as a parent!!
